

FOUNDATION HIGHLIGHTS

NEW:

At the March Board of Trustees meeting it was decided to make our 2004 research publications available without charge. While a suggested contribution of $10.00 and a link to the credit card payment system is included on the website, it is not required to download the PDF files of our research papers.

The Memorial Pages on the Foundation's website www.armaedfoundation.org have been improved to allow easier contributions to the various memorial funds. This is an excellent way to remember those who have given so much to our Association and our Profession.

A new marketing piece has been designed to help CFC's and others spread the word about the vision, mission and strategic goals of the Foundation. It can be downloaded from the website, and highlights the different ways contributions and pledges can be made to AIEF.

CFC REMINDER!

All entries in the CFC competition must be postmarked by August 15, 2005, to qualify for this 2004-2005 campaign.
